LITTLEFIELD

Mrs. Wallace Iverson has gone to Washington, Utah, to visit her parents.

Pioneer Day passed off very quietly celebrated by eating ice cream and watermelons.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Adams are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frehner.

The deepest gloom has befallen our little community by the death of Miss Delora Peterson, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. C. M. Peterson, July 24, 1920. The cause of her death is unknown, she was as well as could be up until 15 minutes before she died. She was 14 years of age. Funeral services held Sunday 3 p. m. The speakers being Dudley Leavitt, George Bowler, Joseph Frehner & Bishop Wm. Abbott. About 50 Mesquite people came up to attend the funeral, bringing the Mesquite choir. The bereaved parents brothers, sisters and relatives have the sympathy of us all. She is survived by her parents, Mr. & Mrs. C. M. Peterson, sisters Hilda, Iona and Verda and brother Clifford Peterson.

George has made good with the Tigers and his friends are all hoping it will be a step to the bigger game. He is starting at an age that will permit him to travel to the top if he has the stuff in him and we believe he has.

JOHN W. NORTON

Pledges his Utmost Support
To The Reclamation
Of Arizona's Irrigable Areas

JOHN W. NORTON, Candidate for United States Senator of the State of Arizona, says that the one thing necessary for the future prosperity of the State of Arizona is the development of its immense natural resources among which are the great power and irrigation possibilities of the Colorado River; also the many other irrigation projects of Arizona. This great work, of course, cannot be done in a day; but with a man whose every effort will be directed to this end these projects may well be realized.
